

North Idaho Federated Republican Women

Red Jacket Day Report 2025

We encouraged our members to volunteer with Republican campaigns for 2024 and many of them worked tirelessly in September and October.

In lieu of our November meeting we had an informal social hour. We met for appetizers and discussed the recent election results.

In January we started a push to bring visitors to our monthly meetings. So far, we've gotten three new members.